Mr. Dulles has asked me to acknowledge and thank you for your letter of August 10 advising us of your future travel plans.

We appreciate your thoughtfulness in writing and I am asking our representative in the [redacted] area to contact you in the near future in order to obtain a little more detailed itinerary. Then, should something develop wherein we might be able to make use of your kind offer to be of service, we will be in a position to get in touch with you.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
